

Brian J. Jenkins
Administrative Partner
KCT Consulting, LLC

Brian Jenkins is the Administrative Partner for KCT Consulting, LLC, an executive coaching firm specializing in organizational transformation through leadership excellence and people engagement.

Previously, Mr. Jenkins has held positions in Finance and analysis at Hope Professional Financial Services, Merrill Lynch, and the United States Commerce Department. With over fifteen years in the finance industry, Mr. Jenkins has developed skills in budget preparation, equity analysis, financial statements, financial analysis, and QuickBooks. He is also a holder of licenses in both health and life insurance.

Mr. Jenkins has his Bachelor's degree in Finance from American Intercontinental University, graduating Magna Cum Laude, after doing his initial years as an Economics major at Rutgers University.

As an Eagle Scout, Mr. Jenkins has dedicated large portions of his life to charity and public works. He is an alumnus of Jack & Jill of America, another service organization, where he was the president, and currently is an active member of the Atlanta Lawn & Tennis Association.